Bishops backing mission

More than 15 Bishops from the Northern Province have so far signed up for the One Life mission in Southwell & Nottingham.

Led by the Archbishop of York, Dr John Sentamu, and working with Bishops Paul and Tony, they will be active in every deanery, working alongside local churches to take the Good News of Jesus to communities across Nottinghamshire.

Bishop Tony has been on previous missions with the Archbishop, taking teams to Sheffield, Durham, Blackburn, Carlisle and Newcastle.

“It is a marvellous opportunity for churches to look at new ways of reaching out to people on the fringes,” said Bishop Tony. “It doesn’t have to be a major event, something simple, well thought out and sustainable is often the best option.

“Lucille and I have led 39 ‘Seed Scattering’ weekends across the diocese, and have seen fantastic energy from parishes organising events, always with a simple Gospel testimony appropriate for the parish.

“We’ve enjoyed open mic nights, pub quizzes, a photographic exhibition, Bingo and Buns, Paws for Thought, a Scalextric evening, and beetle drives.”

In the spring there will be training evenings for those wanting to run an enquirers' course. Each PCC is encouraged to nominate people from each church to attend so that we are ready to help people on their spiritual journey.

The mission takes place from Thursday 12th September to Sunday 15th September. Watch this space as we will soon be adding details of training events designed to help parishes publicise events and services in their communities.

A prayer for One LIFE

We pray for the One LIFE Mission with the Archbishop of York and all the northern Bishops. Father God, help us to reach out in faith and love and witness to all. By your Spirit help us grow in unity, grow as followers of Jesus Christ, and grow your Kingdom in Southwell & Nottingham.

Amen

Nurture course training offered to support mission

Ahead of the Northern Bishops' Mission to the Diocese in September, training is being offered to lay people who are interested in running nurture courses.

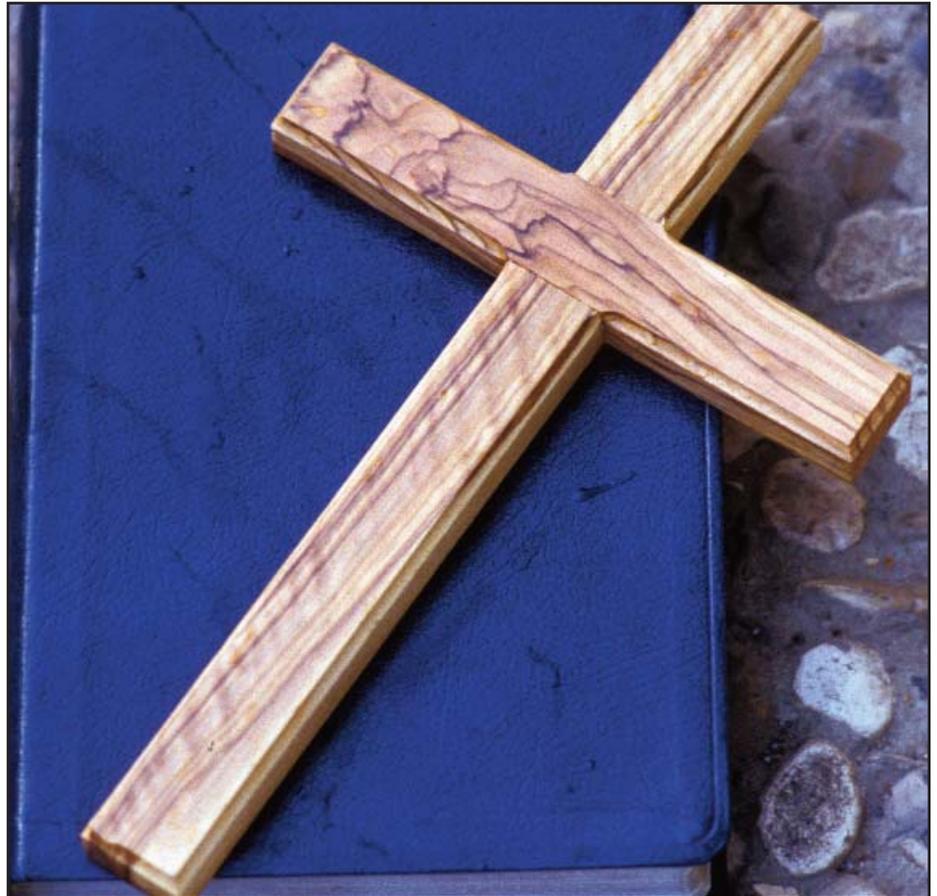

Nurture courses will be an important part of the follow-up work taking place across the diocese after the mission; the aim is to have 100 nurture groups and events planned for the autumn.

It is hoped that at least four lay people from each benefice will attend a 'OneLIFE: Connect' training session, which will focus on belonging, invitation and nurture. Information will be provided on the materials that are available, and the opportunity provided to share wisdom on what works in different contexts.

The sessions will be led by Archdeacon David Picken and the diocesan Church Growth & Planting Enabler, Victoria Ramsey.

"Nurture courses are an important part of the diocesan vision for Growing Disciples," said David.

"The training will help to equip our churches to encourage and work with those people who show an interest in learning more about Christianity during the mission."

People are asked to contact their Deanery Administrator if they want to attend a session, stating their preferred date and the number in the group.

The dates currently planned are as follows:

4 February 2019 (7.00pm-9.00pm at Nottingham St Anne with Emmanuel)

2 March 2019 (10.00am-12noon at St Giles Community Hall, Balderton)

13 March 2019 (7.00pm-9.00pm at Christ Church Worksop)

25 March 2019 (7.00pm-9.00pm at St Wilfrid's Calverton)

The mission takes place from Thursday 12th September to Sunday 15th September. More details and resources will be available soon.

New Diocesan Director of Ordinands

The Revd Craig Hunt has been appointed as the new Diocesan Director of Ordinands for Southwell & Nottingham. He is currently Associate Vicar at St. Mary's Bredin in the centre of Canterbury, as well as Assistant Diocesan Director of Ordinands for the Diocese of Canterbury. Prior to ordination, Craig was a Youth Worker at All Saint's Church, Peckham working in an urban parish with a diverse ethnic community. He trained for ordination at St. Mellitus College, London during which time he was responsible for the provision of youth and community work at St. Luke's Church, Redcliffe Gardens near Earl's Court.

"I'm really looking forward to playing my part to raise up vocations across the Diocese of Southwell & Nottingham to see people come to faith in Christ Jesus and the church grow," said Craig, "Over the last few years I have grown increasingly passionate about seeing disciples of Christ realise that God has a call on their life, and love seeing people step into this call."

Bishop Paul said, "I am delighted that Craig has discerned with us God's calling into this important role in the life of the diocese as we seek to train and equip many more people to serve in lay and ordained ministries across all our churches. I know he will be wonderfully supported by our wider vocations team who bring different gifts and experiences, as well as all clergy who in a very real sense share this ministry in all they do."

Canon Richard Kellett, said: "It is great to have someone who is passionate about the vocation of all God's people to be joining us at this time. Craig brings a wealth of insights and experience that will help us especially around nurturing vocations amongst younger people and those from BAME backgrounds."

Craig is married to Becky and expecting their second child in March. He will take up his post from 10th June. Over the forthcoming interim months, all enquiries related to vocations should be directed in the first instance to our Vocations Advisor, Revd Naomi Hill at naomi.hill@southwell.anglican.org

Were Jesus, Mary and Joseph refugees?

In Matthew chapter 2 we read the story of the ‘Flight into Egypt’ in which, after the birth of Jesus and the visit from the Magi, an “angel of the Lord” comes to Joseph in a dream and warns him to leave Bethlehem for Egypt (Mt 2:12-15). Why? Because King Herod was planning to “seek out the child to destroy him”. Mary and Joseph do leave, along with Jesus, and, according to Matthew, make their way into Egypt.

Afterward, King Herod slaughters all the male children in Bethlehem under two years of age. So, what is going on? A family is forced to flee their homeland for fear of persecution. This is the classic modern-day definition of a refugee. In fact, the UN defines that group of people as follows:

A refugee is someone forced to flee his or her country because of persecution, war, or violence. A refugee has a well-founded fear of persecution for reasons of race, religion, nationality, political opinion or membership in a particular social group.

The Holy Family was fleeing because of a “well-founded fear of persecution” because of their “membership in a particular social group,” in this case people with young children living in Bethlehem. Did Joseph and Mary apply for official refugee status? Of course not. Those kinds of regulations were most likely not in effect. Egypt, which came under Roman control in 30 B.C., was outside the jurisdiction of Herod. Egypt had been the traditional place of refuge for Jews in biblical times (see 1 Kgs 11:40; Jer 26:21)

So, we see a family fleeing to a foreign country out of fear of persecution. The word to focus on is pheuge, “flee,” from which derives the word “refugee,” the one who flees. The angel identifies the Holy Family as refugees.

We should be ready to care for modern-day refugees, asylum seekers and migrants. Why? Not only because the Holy Family were refugees, but also because Jesus asks us to. Later in Matthew’s Gospel, Jesus reminds us that any time we “welcome the stranger” we welcome Jesus himself (Mt 25). Refugees and asylum seekers are our brothers and sisters.

St Mellitus College announce appointment of Director and Asst Director for the new East Midlands centre

St Mellitus College have today announced the appointment of Revd Dr David Emerton as Director of their new teaching centre in the East Midlands. The Revd Jitesh Patel has also been appointed as Assistant Director.

David is presently Principal of the School of Discipleship in the Diocese of Southwell & Nottingham. He will join the St Mellitus team from 1st March on a 0.6fte basis, moving to 0.8 from 1st September. This will mean he is able to continue to play a strategic role in the further development of the School of Discipleship, following a very fruitful first term of the RealLIFE course attended by 250 people in three centres across the diocese.

Plans for term two is well under way with over 180 signed up. David will also continue to oversee the development of the new Licensed Lay Ministry/Reader course. Working closely with Canon Richard Kellett, Director of Discipleship & Ministry, and the wider team, he will help support the other strands of training that will enable the formation of lay and ordained ministry across the diocese.

Within St Mellitus College, East Midlands centre, David will be working closely with Revd Jitesh Patel as he prepares to take up the position of Assistant Director from August 2019. Jitesh is presently Associate Vicar (Training & Development) at Holy Trinity Leicester, a position he combines with being Diocesan Director of Contextual Training in the Diocese of Leicester.

Bishop Paul said, “I am delighted that St Mellitus College have been able to make two excellent appointments to lead the new teaching centre in the East Midlands. We have already experienced the benefit of David’s teaching and leadership within our new School of Discipleship, and know that Jitesh will also bring valuable teaching gifts and insights into ministerial formation as the centre establishes itself to help resource mission in parishes and communities across the region.”

St Mellitus had already announced that the centre will be based in Nottingham at Trinity Church starting in September 2019. As with St Mellitus College’s other regional centres, the East Midlands centre will be supported by a local advisory board chaired by the Bishop of Leicester, Rt Revd Martyn Snow.

Quiet Days at Sacrista Prebend for 2019

The 2019 programme of Quiet Days at Sacrista Prebend, Southwell, is now published and can be picked up from Sacrista Prebend, Southwell Minster or on line (sacristaprebend.wordpress.com)

All are welcome but please note that some are booking up quickly now. The first two are...

9th February The Revd Canon Valerie Rampton Loving God has four elements: 'Rest, Reverence, Obedience, Delight'

The quotation comes from John Owen, a 17th Century Puritan. Most will have heard plenty about obedience, and perhaps a bit about reverence, but probably very little about rest and delight. In this day attendees will learn a bit about John Owen, explore rest, reverence and delight as ways of loving God, and have a nod at obedience.

Tues 12th March Canon Angela Ashwin

Roots and Fruits: Trust, Vulnerability and Gift in the Christian Life

Jesus often uses the imagery of plants, seeds and fruitfulness when speaking about discipleship. This Quiet Day will explore what it means to be 'rooted and grounded in love' (Ephesians 3), abiding in Jesus and being pruned in order to bear his fruit (John 15)

Please contact the warden: The Revd Canon Tony Evans

Nottinghamshire Historic Churches Trust Ride + Stride

The Nottinghamshire Historic Churches Trust makes grants for the repair and maintenance of churches in the county that are over 30 years old. Over the lifetime of the Trust it has awarded well over £1 million and last year alone made grants totalling £38,700.

One of the ways in which it raises money is through the Ride + Stride event which is held on the second Saturday in September. Cyclists and walkers are sponsored to visit as many churches as they can and half of the amount raised is refunded to the sponsored person's own church. You don't even have to be affiliated to a particular Church – cycling or striding is open to everyone.

Last year Ride + Stride had competition as the UK Tour of Britain was in Nottinghamshire on the same day, which meant that many of the rural Churches were not able to participate due to local roads being closed.

However a great effort was made by those who took part and they managed to raise nearly £16,000. Well done to all.

The format is very flexible and churches and participants are free to decide how they organise the day. Some cyclists pride themselves on visiting as many churches as they can, concentrating particularly on out of the way churches. Other churches treat it as an annual church outing with a large group of people walking or cycling.

Even those who sit in the church and provide that all important welcome can be sponsored. All denominations take part, from cathedrals to small village churches. However sometimes it is not possible for a church to be kept open but it can still take part by pinning a signing in form on the door for cyclists and walkers to register their visit.

Many churches open their doors and provide welcome refreshments for the participants. Ride + Stride shares the weekend with the Heritage Open Days initiative and this is an excellent opportunity to take advantage of the publicity and open your church to show neighbours and visitors something of its life and achievements.

It is particularly hoped that churches which have been in receipt of grants from the Trust will show their appreciation by taking part this year.

Please see the website www.nottshistoricchurchtrust.org.uk for further details, or contact the Ride + Stride Administrator margaret.lowe@nottshistoricchurchtrust.com or speak to Margaret direct, tel 07757 800919.

'A Nativity for a New Year' and other paintings

An exhibition by artist Jennifer Bell

2-28 February 2019

The North Transept, Southwell Minster

Nativity Triptych by Jennifer Bell

Jennifer Bell writes...

I am a fine artist by training (a degree in sculpture) and a freelance mural painter by profession, via advertising and book illustration; I enjoy the commercial challenge of combining imaginative painting with interior design – and making clients happy. I have won two prestigious interior design competitions, and have worked in some beautiful houses, hotels and churches as well as Heritage Visitor Centres around the world.

I also have a passion for equestrian art... having been pony mad as a child and never really grown out of it. I have tutored live-horse painting workshops, and written three books on how to draw horses.

But there's another side... the bit of me that wants to explore the crossover between the real world and the spiritual, and delights in thinking in metaphor; preferring to imagine situations and narratives (particularly Scripture) in pictures.

I came to faith quite dramatically over the summer of 1989, and going to the first New Wine summer conference had quite a lot to do with the direction my faith (and art!) took. Painting a 5ft x 40ft long series of Advent panels that autumn – as an over-the-top new Christian – at my local church not only taught me a lot about theology, and the amazing potential of art in the church, but gave me the confidence to start offering murals commercially. The panels are still going up every Advent, nearly 30 years later!

I believe that we are all visionary – that God can speak to us powerfully through our visual imagination as well as through spoken truths. In fact, visualising spiritual concepts can be more compelling to a world that thrives on the visual; conveying emotion, posing questions, introducing tricky themes with metaphor... allowing personal discovery and revelation without being formulaic or clichéd.

I like to paint fairly realistically and I appreciate beautiful things – I don't set out to be an artistic ground breaker or 'edgy'. What I do is tell a story (or a bit of one) in each painting, introduce the viewer to it, and invite them to continue the thought for themselves.

“Hidden in plain sight in our communities”

One of ‘The Clewer Initiatives’ strap-lines is: “Hidden in plain sight in our communities”. Jesus was all about noticing people who haven’t been noticed - caring, and setting them free from anything or anyone who imprisoned or oppressed them.

His powerful words (quoting the Prophet Isaiah) in Luke Chapter 4 should be at the heart of our mission and ministry especially as God’s given us (the Church of England) a unique presence in every neighbourhood across the country and through our networks we can notice when suspicious activity may be going on.

Victims of Modern Day Slavery and trafficking live in our suburban, urban and rural neighbourhoods. Some victims may paint your nails, some wash your car, some pick the fruit and veg we eat, some are ‘live-in household help’, and some are even forced to sell their bodies for sex.

Churches are often seen as places of safety and refuge to vulnerable people in crisis, regardless of their faith background, when they do not know where to turn or who to trust.

We’re in the business of noticing things and challenging injustices, especially when we live in “a culture of indifference” where the dominant culture is “you get on with your life, I’ll get on with mine”. So it’s vital that we are able to recognise the signs of Modern Day Slavery and know what to do about it as this may be the only chance a vulnerable individual has of being rescued.

The Clewer Initiative offers resources and ongoing training to churches and faith-led projects on how to notice, spot the signs and care for victims of a most abhorrent crime which robs men, women and children of their God given dignity and value.

The Clewer Initiative enables Church of England dioceses and wider church networks to develop strategies for detecting modern slavery in their communities.
