Joyful occasion as ordinations take place at Southwell Minster

The ordinations of this year's priest and deacon candidates at Southwell Minster took place in a very special series of carefully arranged services throughout the day on Saturday and Sunday 26th & 27th September.

Canon Richard Kellet, Director of Discipleship and Ministry explained how these special services differed from the usual ordination celebrations, "The ordination services are usually attended by over 300 people at Southwell Minster, but due to COVID-19 restrictions we were limited to 30 guests for each service. This made the services feel very special, and the candidates felt blessed by the experience."

Consecration of Andy Emerton as Bishop of Sherwood

In a carefully managed service, streamed live from York Minster we celebrated the consecration of Andy Emerton as the Bishop of Sherwood on Monday 21st September.

Following his ordination, Andy Emerton said: "I was absolutely delighted to be ordained as the Bishop of Sherwood yesterday in York Minster."

 THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND

Diocese of Southwell & Nottingham

Consecration of the Bishop of Sherwood

It was a privilege to be consecrated by Bishop Paul Butler, the Bishop of Durham, and former Bishop of Southwell & Nottingham”.

Archbishop Stephen preached in such a powerful, yet wonderfully intimate way and it was a joy for myself and my family to be part of such an inspiring occasion. I am looking forward to exercising my ministry within the diocese of Southwell & Nottingham, serving and getting to know people in their local communities.”

Celebrating this momentous occasion, Paul Williams, Bishop of Southwell & Nottingham said, “I am feeling full of joy and gratitude to God for the newly consecrated Bishop of Sherwood, Andy Emerton. The day brought precious moments of prayer and blessings during the ordination service at York Minster.” We’re delighted to share some photographs of this momentous occasion with you and warmly invite you to to hear a pre-recorded conversation between Bishop Paul and the new Bishop of Sherwood talking about their own experience of being called to God.

Ordinations at Southwell Minster

Speaking after their ordinations, some of the candidates shared their feelings:

SUE PENDENQUE is serving her title with The Revd Bridget Baguley in Sherwood Benefice. She said: “I was wonderfully surprised by my ordination on Saturday and the retreat time up to it. I hadn't expected it to feel as significant as it did. The intimacy of a smaller service, the deep sense of commissioning and affirmation of calling, left me feeling really 'seen' by God. Thank you to all who made it a reality”.

BENJAMIN MARSTON is serving his title with The Revd Ben Clayton in the Retford St Saviour Benefice. He said: “Being ordained priest was wonderful but it is simply one part of what following Jesus looks like for me. Following Jesus looks different for each one of us, but it is never dull and is always the very best decision anyone can make”.

ALEX SHIELLS is serving his title with The Revd Luiz Lima in the Worksop Christ Church and Shireoaks Benefice. He said: “It was wonderful to be ordained and a very special service. I'm thankful for the support of so many and especially those who were involved in putting the services together. I'm excited for what's next as I move forward in ministry!”

CLAIRE MELLESS is continuing to serve her title with the Revd Kate Byrom in the Ravenshead Benefice. She said: “My ordination as priest was very intimate and very special, the Holy Spirit was very much active and I found it very moving and emotional”

FRANCES FINN is serving her title with The Revd Canon Steve Silvester in the Nottingham St Nicholas Benefice. She said: “I've been overwhelmed by how positively the news of my ordination has been received. I have kept it fairly quiet until now, and so I've been moved by the openness and interest there is in faith and spirituality. It was a special weekend, made all the more intimate because of Covid restrictions, and I'm deeply grateful for the opportunity to offer Jesus' love and life in my new role.”

PETER STANLEY is serving his title with The Revd Luiz Lima in the Worksop Christchurch and Shireoaks Benefice. He said: “I am feeling truly blessed having been ordained at Southwell Minster. It is the beginning of a new stage of my journey in faith and one that I never would have imagined would happened, particularly at my time of life. I am excited to now be the Assistant Curate in the Benefice of Christ Church Worksop and St. Luke's Shireoaks, a place that I have known and loved for over 28 years. I was reminded of this passage from Jeremiah which I know are true for my life ahead, “For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the LORD, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.” Jeremiah 29:11”

ESTHER HUTCHINSON is serving her title with The Revd Lydia Cartwright in the Clifton Team Ministry Benefice. She said: “My ordination service on Sunday was an incredibly special service, it was filled with the Holy Spirit and such joy. It was an amazing way to take the next steps serving Jesus and the church”

PIPPA SCOTT is serving her title with The Revd Caroline Phillips in the Mansfield St Peter and St Paul Benefice and St Mark Benefice. She said: “My Ordination was one of the most profoundly moving moments of my life. It's hard to put into words quite how I felt the moment the Bishops laid hands on me during the intimate service at Southwell Minster; but I felt the presence of God with me and within me, and I know He shall be with me as I minister as a Deacon in His Church. Thank you to all who made the service possible under such difficult circumstances this year”.

GRANT WALTON is serving his title with The Revd Tom Gillum in the St Mary the Virgin, the Lace Market, Nottingham Benefice. He said: “A privilege to be included in such a special and intimate service in which God’s presence was tangible and his commissioning for the task ahead so authentic. Looking forward to serving his kingdom purposes alongside everyone else in the diocese!”

JULIE COTTERILL is continuing to serve her title in Sutton-in-Ashfield (St. Michael & All Angels) New Cross Community Church - Anglican - Methodist - Local Ecumenical Partnership. She said: “The service was wonderful, even with all the restrictions in place, I was humbled at how special, powerful and intimate it was. Everything about the service just had a rightness about it and I was overwhelmed by God with joy. I still have the words of Bishop Andy ringing in my ears that we were ‘entrusted with the gift of grace’ and his following question ‘what will you do with this gift?’

All services were held under careful guidelines because of the Coronavirus pandemic with strict limits on the numbers invited to ensure everyone remained safe.

Mothers' Union helps with the three "R"s in communities in Burundi

Rosemary Cottingham of St Mark's, Woodthorpe writes:

Reading, [w]riting and [a]rithmetic – Popularly known as “The three R's”, they referred to the basic skills you were expected to acquire while in school though not everyone did or was able to!

In many parts of the world, including Burundi, large numbers of people lack the opportunity to acquire these skills because a basic education is unavailable or inaccessible.

“I have never been to school”, said one young, Burundian woman, “because my parents were not interested in girl's education. When I grew up I got married to a literate husband who worked far from home. We were therefore obliged to communicate through letters and it was a big problem for me as I was illiterate. I had to take the letter to someone else to read and sometimes people would lie to me and read what was not written or would reveal all our secrets. This really worried and disappointed me.”

Literacy and numeracy have been part of Mothers' Union initiatives in Burundi for many years with thousands joining the programme and thousands of women and men gaining accreditation by MU as literate and numerate. Through what is now known as the Literacy and Financial Education Programme community volunteers are trained as literacy facilitators who are then equipped to run literacy circles in their own communities. To enable community unity all literacy circles and savings groups are open to everyone regardless of religion, age, gender or ethnicity.

One facilitator shares her experience, “When I was accredited, a group of new learners asked me to become their facilitator. I was pleased to hear that and accepted with great joy. Now I do whatever I can to support my learners and enjoy seeing their progress. I have gained more confidence because of the work I am doing and I participate in community discussions without feeling shy. I now send all my children to school so that they will not have the bad experience of what I endured before I became literate.

Now that I have gained new skills as a facilitator, I am determined more than ever to empower my community to overcome illiteracy.”

The programme gives participants far more than basic skills. It empowers those who feel powerless, enables decision-making in the home, nurtures independence and autonomy, changes attitudes and perceptions, and enhances family and community relationships.

Good Money Week: 24th – 30th October

David McCoulough, Director of Partnerships and Mission and Chair of Trustees of Transforming Notts Together writes:

As the full impact of the coronavirus pandemic continues to play out and the economic and financial impact hit many people, it is vital that we respond prayerfully, practically and compassionately as followers of Jesus. As a diocese we participate in the County Life Chances Working Group, which focuses on child poverty. In the city we are part of the Nottingham Financial Resilience Partnership alongside Hope Nottingham, Transforming Notts Together, Nottingham Credit Union, CAP, Experian, Advice Nottingham and many other partners. Jesus came to set prisoners free, to liberate the oppressed. The reality for many people today is a fear of being imprisoned by debt and to be paralysed by financial insecurity. So many people are not experiencing the fulness of life that Jesus offers. How can we respond? Here are some practical suggestions that might be useful.

From 24th for one week, it is Good Money Week. This is a national campaign to grow and raise awareness of sustainable, responsible and ethical finance. At Transforming Notts Together we have a variety of pieces of work targeting financial values across all ages.

Covid Cash Recovery

In partnership with Just Finance Foundation, we are offering and delivering a free 2 hour session to groups of people from Nottinghamshire; church groups, foodbanks, library services, all sorts of backgrounds and experiences have attended.

The course is delivered online and aims to enable people within the community to help others by signposting to information which potentially could help people suffering financially as a result of the current Covid crisis. It covers everything from general entitlements, rights, government and charitable support, budgeting, help with bills, loans, debt, and money strategies for making it through these next few months.

If you'd like to sign up for a free session visit:
www.transformingnottstogether.org.uk/covid-cash-recovery

Young people

We are also offering a 1 hour Cash Smart, Credit Savvy session especially for young people. The course is also designed to be led online and deals with our relationship with money, spending and shopping around, budgeting, maximising income and saving

Lifesavers in primary schools

This is a Financial Education programme which aims to instil knowledge, skills and values into children at a young age, preparing them with good habits and understanding for later life. The programme is based on key financial values of being wise, generous, just and thankful with our money. A key part of the work is setting up savings clubs in the schools which are linked to a local credit union.

If you'd like to find out more about these, or book onto a free workshop, get in touch with us at <https://transformingnottstogether.org.uk/>

Nottinghamshire Historic Churches Trust

Margaret Lowe, of Nottinghamshire Historic Churches Trust writes:

We are fortunate enough to acquire some resource from AllChurches Trust for the inclusion of Roof Alarms at the various Churches in our county. If you are aware that your Church needs this protection you are advised to submit an application to the Nottinghamshire Historic Churches Trust for a grant to help with the costs.

On a brighter note this year's Ride & Stride event – which is normally open to all denominations in the area, from cathedrals to small village churches, took place on Saturday 14th September.

Albeit in a slightly different format, due to the present Covid restrictions placed on the cyclists and walkers, it was still a great day to go out into the countryside and visit small and large Churches. The precautions were numerous – and well adhered to by all.

A big Thank you to all who took part this year – Churches who took part had some very enterprising cyclists/walkers who made the effort to enjoy what was a very different R & S year – even with all the restrictions imposed. Well Done

If you are not aware - cyclists and walkers are sponsored to visit as many churches as they can and half of the amount raised is refunded to the sponsored person's own church - You don't even have to be affiliated to a particular Church – cycling or striding everyone is welcomed.

The format is very flexible and churches and participants are free to decide themselves how they organise the day. Some cyclists pride themselves on visiting as many churches as they can concentrating particularly on out of the way churches.

We particularly hope that churches which have been in receipt of grants from the Trust will show their appreciation by taking part this year.

If you require further details on any of the above please contact Margaret mobile 07757 800919 or by email: info.nhct@gmail.com

Free online EcoChurch Conference

Join the free online EcoChurch conference on Sat 10th October, 10am-4pm (you can book for particular sessions, so no need to come all day if that's difficult).

Sessions from senior staff at A Rocha on EcoChurch (what, why, how etc), the Church of England Environment team, Climate Stewards, and others.

Also from the host church in St Albans diocese – an eco-church itself, very active in Living Churchyard biodiversity and local carbon reduction initiatives.

EcoChurch is a brilliant initiative of the Christian environmental charity, A Rocha.

Its free online survey and supporting resources are designed to equip churches to express care for God's world in our worship and teaching; look after buildings and land; engage with our local communities and in global campaigns; and act in congregations' personal lifestyles.

Events and information

An event for Spiritual Directors and anyone interested in training to become one

Monday October 12th at 7:30pm via zoom

The Community of Soul Friends is a dispersed community which helps people follow Jesus through developing a personal Way of Life. Within the community everyone is offered a Soul Friend to walk with them and support them in discipleship in the whole of life. The aim is to nurture relationships of trust and encourage people to find freedom in a balanced and God focused rhythm of life.

this online event will be led by the Rev Nick Helm who is Vicar of a growing rural parish in Holmfirth. He is a tutor at the Leeds School of Ministry with a special interest in discipleship and spirituality. He is a member of the new monastic Community of Aiden and Hilda, and is founder of the Community of Soul Friends based in West Yorkshire. Nick will be sharing what it means to be a soul friend and to support discipleship in the whole of life.
